Defense Logistics Agency Awards $23M Contract to Lion's Logistics Division

DAYTON, OHIO — LVI, the military third-party logistics division of Lion Apparel Inc., has been awarded a $23.12 million contract through its affiliate, LA3P, to continue to serve the United States Army with its logistics requirements related to clothing and textiles.

"For more than 15 years, we have been engaged in ensuring that the U.S. Army meets its readiness requirements, and we are very happy to continue serving the Defense Logistics Agency and the U. S. Army in this new contract," said Terry Smith, senior vice president of Lion's military logistics division.

"We were successful for two reasons. First, we have a track record of meeting or exceeding world-class performance in all of our military logistics support activities, which service the U.S. Marine Corps and the U.S. Navy, as well as the U.S. Army," said Lion Chief Executive Officer Steve Schwartz. "Second, we have proven our ability to provide this level of service while reducing our customers' costs."

Lion Apparel Inc. is a 112-year-old, family owned company based in Dayton, Ohio, USA. Lion serves the uniform and personal protective equipment (PPE) and logistics requirements of police and fire departments, civilian government agencies, emergency services, and military organizations around the world. Each and every day, Lion fulfills the personal safety, readiness and identity needs of its customers around the world.
